BENJAMIN'S BIG FEE

SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS FOR RECOVERING A FRENCH INHERITANCE.

A dispatch was published a few days ago announcing that through the instru-mentallity of the Hen, J. P. Benjamin two ladies in Georgis had recovered an inheritance in France valued at $12,000,

The Atlanta, Georgia, 'Herald' pullishes the interesting details:

From positive authority it is ascertained that Mrs. Virginia M. Campbell and her niece, Mrs., Elinira Chambers, both of Madison, Georgia, are entitled to $12,000. 900, now waiting in France to be claimed by these fortunate ladies.

Mrs. Campbell is a willow, about seventy years of age; her niece, Mrs. Chambers. is also a widow, aged about thirty-six. The vast property which they have inherited belongs to the Rennauleau estate. Information in regard to it was received by them about three months since, and by the advice of a gentleman in Madison, who says that he was once a law partner of the partner of Mr. Benjamin, after thorughly investiga ting the case, wrote to Mrs. Campbell and Mrs Chambers tost there was not a question of doubt in regard to their claim, and advised them to come to Europe at once. The property decends to these ladies of Mrs. Chambers. Mrs. Campbell s maiden name was Maguiro, her mother onnected with one of the best families in is all the record found :

By the terms of an agreement between Mr. Benjamin and the two ladies, the former will take one-half of the whole amount of the estate, and the other half. to lead brilliancy to the occase a by their $6,000,000, will then fall to the Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Chambers, the share of each being the neat little sum of $3,000 be will be, and certainly on, to be rewill be accompanied by a lawyer from who confesses to his compilety in the Savannah and Mr. Antoine Picquet of Nathan murder, has been indicted for Augusta, who goes for the purpose of identitying them. DRY GOODS,

WASHINGTON AVENUE CA1RO, ILLINOIS.

A supply of choice butter frem north in dairies constantly on hand.

Having purchased the grocery establishment of H. Thielecke, I shall always keep on band a full and fresh supply of all the best goods in my line, to be found in the market. By strict attention to business, and fair dealing, I hope not only to retain all the custom the place has enjoyed in the past, but to add to the list many new patrons. Asking a law share of public patronage,

Respectfully, HERMAN SCHMETZSTORFF.
